

Knit Night on the Brain: Scarf Pattern

Background:

This scarf will be used to create an installation piece for SUPERCRAWL 2011, an art and music festival on James St N in Hamilton ON. It will become part of a larger piece that will cover the façade of The Brain, 199 James St N.

Once SUPERCRAWL is over the piece will be dismantled and the scarves donated to Mission Services Opportunity Centre where they will be distributed to those in need of something warm to guard against the cold.

You will need:

- 1 ball of Lion Brand Wool Ease Thick and Quick in a “mortar” colour MC.
- 1 ball of Lion Brand Wool Ease Thick and Quick in a “brick” colour BC.
- Size 10 ½ (6.5mm) knitting needles or whichever size needed to achieve the gauge below.
- Tapestry needle

Gauge:

3 stitches and 4 rows per square inch.

Pattern:

Cast on 26 stitches using the MC yarn.

Row 1 - 3: Knit all stitches.

Row 4: Purl all stitches.

Row 5: (RS) with BC, wyib sl 2, k10, wyib sl 2, k10, wyib sl 2.

Row 6: (WS) with BC, wyif sl 2, k10 through the back loop (creating a twisted stitch), wyif sl 2, k10 through the back loop, wyif sl 2.
